Dues payments to WMA, as well as contributions made to Political Action Committees, are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. WMA dues may be deducted as an ordinary and necessary business expense. In compliance with the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, 78% of your membership dues is deductible as a business expense. Further information on this law should be obtained from your tax advisor.

I certify that neither this firm nor any of its principals own a mobilehome/manufactured housing community. Should ownership be acquired, the Association will be notified and the community membership application(s) will be submitted. Applicant understands that dues are nonrefundable and agrees to uphold WMA Code of Ethics and to maintain membership in good standing.
