Community Members maintaining a controlling interest in more than one community must secure a separate membership for each community under his or her control. In the case of limited partnership or ownership syndications, the General Partners shall be considered to have a controlling interest for purposes of this section. WMA Bylaws, Article V, Section 2.

I certify that this application complies with the aforementioned Bylaws requirement. Should ownership in any additional community not listed on this application be acquired, the association shall be notified and the appropriate application submitted. Applicant understands that dues are nonrefundable and agrees to uphold WMA Code of Ethics and to maintain membership in good standing. Dues payments to WMA, as well as contributions made to Political Action Committees are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. WMA dues may be deducted as an ordinary and necessary business expense. In compliance with the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, 80% of your membership dues is deductible as a business expense. Further information on this law should be obtained from your tax advisor.
