2021 MCM TOPICS

March: Sexual Harassment Prevention Training

This webinar will provide training on Sexual Harassment Prevention in the workplace. Participation in the webinar will provide compliance with California Law training requirements. Attendees will receive a Certificate of Attendance. This webinar will be presented in coordination with the California Employers Association.

May: Hot Topics: Mobilehome Residency Law Protection Program; Infrastructure/Title 25; Utility Transfer Process

This webinar will address the many new and fast moving issues our industry is facing due to recent changes including the progress of the Mobilehome Residency Law Protection Program, Infrastructure and Title 25 basic requirements, and participation in the utility transfer process.

August: Fair Housing and Financial Transactions

With changing legal requirements for source of income for residential applicants, credit reporting, credit checks and consumer protections, it's important to stay informed on how these changes and legal parameters can place you in jeopardy of a Fair Housing violation.

November: Business Best Practices: Post COVID Day-to-Day Management of a Mobilehome Park

Moving past the COVID Tenant Relief Act requirements; Customer relations; Amenities, and much more.

2021 WMA Convention and Expo

As always, the WMA Convention and Expo is a great way to earn MCM credits. Please stay tuned for additional information
